Grants Creek Missionary Baptist Church, Inc.

Articles of Incorporation & Bylaws

Adopted: July 23, 2006

BYLAWS OF GRANTS CREEK MISSIONARY BAPTIST CHURCH, INC.

ARTICLE I. NAME

This Body shall be known as the Grants Creek Missionary Baptist Church, Inc. of 1401 Old 30 Road, Maysville, Onslow County, North Carolina, 28555.

ARTICLE II. PURPOSE

The purpose of this Body shall be to provide regular opportunities for public worship; to sustain the ordinances, doctrines and ethics set forth in the New Testament for the Church of our Lord Jesus Christ; to nurture its members through a program of Christian education; to channel its offerings to the support of the objects of the Redeemer's Kingdom; and to preach and propagate among all people the Gospel of the Revelation of God through Jesus Christ as Savior and Lord.

ARTICLE III. STATEMENT OF FAITH

The Holy Bible is the inspired Word of God and is the basis for any statement of faith. This Church subscribes to the doctrinal statement of the latest version of the Baptist Faith and Message as adopted by the Southern Baptist Convention.

ARTICLE IV. CHURCH COVENANT

Having been led, as we believe by the Spirit of God, to receive the Lord Jesus Christ as our Savior, and on the profession of our faith, having been baptized in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, we do now, in the presence of God and angels, most solemnly and joyfully enter into covenant with one another as one body in Christ.

We engage, therefore, by the aid of the Holy Spirit to walk together in Christian love; to strive for the advancement of this Church in knowledge, holiness, and comfort; to promote its prosperity and spirituality; to sustain its worship, ordinances, disciplines and doctrines; to give it sacred prominence over all institutions of human origin; to contribute cheerfully and regularly to the support of the ministry, the expenses of the Church, the relief of the poor and the spread of the Gospel through all nations.

We also engage to maintain family and private devotions; to bring up our children in the nurture and admonition of the Lord; to seek the salvation of our kindred and acquaintances; to walk circumspectly in the world; to be just in our dealings, faithful in our engagements and exemplary in our deportment; to avoid all tattling, backbiting and excessive anger; to abstain from the sale of, and use of destructive drugs and intoxicating drinks as a beverage; to be zealous in our efforts to advance the Kingdom of our Savior.

We further engage to watch over one another in brotherly love; to remember one another in prayer; to aid one another in sickness and distress; to cultivate Christian sympathy in feeling and Christian courtesy in speech; to be slow to take offence, but always ready for reconciliation and mindful of the rules of our Savior to secure it without delay.

We moreover engage that when we remove from this place we will, as soon as possible, unite with some other Church where we can carry out the spirit of this Covenant and the principles of God's Word.

ARTICLE V. GOVERNANCE

- Section 1: Congregational Government: The government of this Church shall be congregational in nature. The final authority for the operation and management of the affairs of this corporation, spiritual and temporal, shall be vested in the membership of the Church, whose authority shall be exercised in the manner set forth in the Bylaws. Members alone shall have the authority to adopt and amend Bylaws, approve budgets, receive members and govern and conduct the affairs of this Church.
- Section 2: Autonomy and Affiliations: This Church is autonomous, yet as a Southern Baptist Church, it recognizes the privileges of Christian fellowship, social intercourse and cooperation with other Churches, but it shall at all times be independent and the final authority for management and operations of all spiritual and temporal matters shall be vested in the membership of the Church and be exercised in the manner set forth in these Bylaws. The Church shall seek to cooperate with the New River Baptist Association, the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina, the Southern Baptist Convention and any other agency the membership desires and shall seek to participate in those organizations by supporting their cause and through duly elected messengers.

Section 3: Withdrawals: This Church may withdraw from affiliation with the New River Baptist Association, Baptist State Convention of North Carolina, and/or the Southern Baptist Convention by a three-fourths majority vote of those members voting. A vote to withdraw must have a thirty day notice to the membership stating the reason or reasons for withdrawal. If the result of the vote is less than three-fourths majority, then the property shall remain vested in that part of the membership that desires to remain affiliated with the Association and/or Conventions.

Section 4: Property: It is agreed that the securing and maintaining of real property, buildings and equipment by this Church shall be for the sole purpose of providing facilities for public worship and for engagement upon the missionary, education and benevolent interests of this Church, of the character and in the spirit of the Bylaws adopted by this Church.

Section 5: Property Holdings: If at any time this Church, or any part of its leadership shall determine to alter the quality of its beliefs and practices so as to be at variance with the character described in these Bylaws, such decision must be made in a special business meeting called for the purpose and duly advertised and publicized for thirty days before the meeting convenes. This decision must be made by a three-fourths majority vote of those members voting. If the result of the vote is less than three-fourths majority, the property of this Church shall remain in that part of the congregation that shall agree to use the property for which it was purchased and has been to that time maintained.

ARTICLE VI. MEMBERSHIP

Section 1: Members: The membership of this Church shall be composed of persons who have accepted Jesus Christ as their personal Savior, who have been baptized by immersion and who have subscribed to the latest version of the Baptist Faith and Message and the Bylaws of this Church. Such persons may be received into the membership by a majority vote of those Church members voting. On the recommendation of the Pastor, the Deacons by unanimous consent may suspend the requirement for immersion baptism as a condition of membership in cases of physical impossibility or severe hardship.

Section 2: Reception of Members: Persons may present themselves as a candidate for membership at any regular Church service. At the discretion of the Pastor, the Church may, as set forth in these Bylaws, call itself into special session and vote on the membership of the candidate, or the Pastor may acknowledge the desire and postpone the vote until some subsequent meeting. A person may be received for membership by any of the following ways:

A. By Profession of Faith and Baptism: An applicant may be received by profession of faith and as a candidate for baptism. After baptism, the new member shall be extended the right hand of fellowship.

B. By Transfer of Letter: A member from another Southern Baptist Church of like faith and order, who has received the ordinance of baptism by immersion, may be received by promise of letter of transfer. The new member shall be extended the right hand of fellowship. If such letter cannot be secured within ninety (90) days, the Clerk shall automatically record such member as "received by statement of faith".

C. By Statement of Faith: Any person, who professes Christ as Lord and Savior and has been baptized by immersion, may be received by statement of faith. The new member shall be extended the right hand of fellowship.

Section 3: Procedures:

A. Spiritual Watchcare: All new members shall receive the right hand of fellowship and be under the watchcare of the Church for a period of sixty (60) days during which those members may not vote during any business meeting nor hold any elected position.

B. Membership Orientation: It is strongly recommended that all new members, whether by profession of faith and baptism, transfer of letter, or statement of faith, attend a membership orientation program.

Section 4: Rights of Members:

A. Voting: Except as otherwise set forth herein, every member is entitled to vote at all elections and on all motions submitted to the membership.

B. Holding Office: Except as otherwise set forth herein, every member is eligible for consideration by the membership as a candidate for elective offices in the Church.

C. Records: Members shall have access to the principal records of the Church including minutes of its governing body and principal financial reports. However, consistent with Southern Baptist doctrine and practice, these rights shall not include the right to review or inspect individual donor records or personnel files.

Section 5: Active Members: Members are expected to be faithful in all duties essential to the Christian life, to attend the services of the Church regularly, to give regularly and systematically to its support and kingdom causes and to share in its organized work. All shut-in members are considered active members.

Section 6: Inactive Members: The Deacons shall review the membership rolls of the Church no less than every three years. For those persons who, without good cause, have not participated in the life of the Church in the past six months, the Deacons shall seek to make personal contact and determine the reasons for their inactivity and encourage them in their relationship with the Church. In the event such persons cannot be contacted, or the persons indicate a desire to be placed on an inactive roll, or the Deacons believe an inactive status would be appropriate, the Deacons may recommend to the Church that those persons be placed on an inactive roll. The Church by majority vote may then place such persons on the inactive roll. Persons on the inactive roll will be categorized as resident inactive or non-resident inactive. Persons on the inactive roll shall not be entitled to vote on any matter before the Church nor hold any elected office. Persons will be removed from the inactive roll and returned to the regular Church roll if the person returns and actively supports the Church for a period of six weeks.

 Section 7: Termination of Membership: A person has no voice in the government of this Church once their membership is terminated. When a name is dropped from our roll by termination of membership, that name is lined out. The Church Clerk will give dates and reason on the Church roll and report it at a regular business meeting. Membership of this Church can be terminated in the following ways:

A. Transfer of Letter: Letters of transfer may be granted for members wishing to unite with any Southern Baptist Church. Because of the timing of quarterly meetings, the Church Clerk has the authority to grant the letter of transfer without coming before this Church in conference.

B. Exclusion of Membership: In the event of persistent breach of a member's covenant vows, the membership, after due notice and opportunity of hearing, and every possible kindly effort to make such action unnecessary, may upon majority vote terminate the membership status of a person in this Church for reasons it considers sufficient to warrant such action.

C. Removal from Roll: Any member may request their name be removed from the Church roll by making a written request to the Church.

ARTICLE VII. MEETINGS

Section 1: Types of Meetings:

A. Services: This Church is to hold regular meetings for worship, teaching, and fellowship on Sundays and on Wednesday evenings at such times recommended by the Pastor and Deacons and approved by the Church. The Lord's Supper shall be observed at least quarterly as determined by the Pastor or Deacons. Additional observances of The Lord's Supper may be at the discretion of the Pastor in cooperation with the Deacons.

B. Annual Meeting: The Church shall hold one annual meeting, called by the Board of Directors, for the purpose of presenting the status of the corporation. No new business may be transacted at this meeting other than for the purpose of validating the state of the corporation. The annual meeting shall be held on the first (1st) Sunday in December. The annual meeting shall be moderated by the Chairperson of the Deacons.

C. Regular Business Meetings: The Church shall hold guarterly business meetings in the months of February, May, August and November. The meetings are to be moderated by the Pastor or in his absence, the Chairperson or Vice-Chairperson of the Deacons. At the regular business meetings, there shall be a prepared written agenda. The agenda shall include a hymn, scripture reading, and prayer to begin the meeting. The minutes of the last meeting or meetings, monthly Treasurer's report, Clerk's report and departmental reports shall be presented. A period of time will be allowed for presentation, discussion and action on any old business. Any new business that needs to come before the congregation shall be advised to the Moderator or Chairperson of the Deacons to be considered for the agenda no less than ten days before the date of the regular meeting. The Moderator in consultation with the Chairperson of the Deacons will refer items of business to appropriate committees or Deacons. Any new business not on the agenda may not be discussed or acted upon without consent of three-fourths majority of the members voting.

D. Special Business Meetings: Special business meetings may be called to handle business that may be of an urgent nature or that may not be effectively handled at a regular business meeting. The meetings are to be moderated by the Pastor or in his absence, the Chairperson or Vice-Chairperson of the Deacons. No business shall be transacted at a special business meeting except that for which the meeting was called.

- A seven day notice must be given to the congregation stating the time and purpose for any special business meeting. Special business meetings may be called in one of the following ways:
 - 1. The Pastor or the Deacons in consultation with each other may call for a special business meeting as deemed necessary.
 - 2. A member, at any time, has the right to petition the Chairperson of the Deacons to call a special meeting stating the reasons why such a meeting should be called. When the petition is made, the Deacons will evaluate the request and, upon approval, will call a special meeting.
 - 3. A committee may call for a special business meeting by notifying the Pastor or the Deacons.
 - 4. The Pastor may call an immediate special business meeting during any service for the express purpose of the reception of new members into the Church.
 - E. Other Meetings: Other meetings of the Church or of authorized groups within the Church shall be set according to the needs of the congregation.
 - Section 2: Order of Business: The latest revision of Robert's Rules of Law and Order shall be the standard to govern and maintain order at all meetings of business conducted by this Church. The Church shall elect annually a Parliamentarian who is knowledgeable in parliamentary procedure to facilitate all questions of order.
 - Section 3: Minutes: The Clerk shall keep minutes of each business meeting and preserve them when approved as a part of a permanent Church record. A copy of the minutes shall be kept in the Church office.
 - Section 4: Voting: All business transacted during any and all meetings shall be voted on. The Church shall not use proxy or absentee voting as methods afforded to members for voting. Unless otherwise specified in these Bylaws, the methods of voting and counting votes to be used by the Church are described below.
 - A. Voice Vote: A vote of members saying "aye" or "nay". The Moderator shall determine the majority vote.
 - B. Rising Vote: A vote of members by a show of hands. The Church Clerk shall assist the Moderator in counting the votes.
 - C. Secret Ballot: A written vote by members. The votes shall be counted by no less than three members appointed by the Moderator. These members shall not be in consideration or immediate family members of those under consideration.

ARTICLE VIII. CHURCH OFFICERS

Section 1: The ordained officers of the Church shall consist of the Pastor and the Deacons. There shall be other vocational leadership as needed such as: Clerk, Treasurer, and any others that may be needed to give efficiency in operation. All officers shall be elected by the Church and must be a member in good standing. All officers will serve their term continuously beginning September 1 and ending August 31.

A. Calling of a Pastor: When a vacancy occurs, the Church shall elect a Pastor Search Committee in accordance with the guidelines set forth in Article XII (Special Committees), Section 1 (Pastor Search Committee). The Pastor Search Committee has sole authority to seek out and nominate, as Pastor, a minister of the Gospel whose Christian character qualifies him for the office as Pastor of this Church. The Pastor Search Committee will have sole control over all contact, communication and activities with a prospective candidate until that candidate is called by the Church. A vote shall take place immediately following a prospective candidate's trial sermon. This shall take place during a Sunday morning worship service at a called conference specifically set for that purpose of which at least seven days notice has been given to the membership. No other candidates may be nominated or considered from the floor of the Church. The vote to call a Pastor shall be made by secret ballot with an affirmative vote of three-fourths of those members voting being necessary to constitute a call. Should the man recommended by the Pastor Search Committee fail to receive the necessary three-fourths majority, the Church shall instruct the Committee to seek another man for consideration and the meeting shall be dismissed without debate.

B. Duties of the Pastor: The Pastor is the leader of Pastoral ministries in the Church and is responsible for leading the Church to function as a cooperating Southern Baptist Church, according to the principles of the New Testament.

1. He shall have charge of the welfare and general oversight of the Church.2. He will lead the congregation, the organizations and the Church staff to perform their spiritual tasks.

329330

331

3. He will lead the Church in worship, visitations and witness, proclaiming the gospel to believers and unbelievers. He shall minister to members of the Church and community.

332333

4. He shall conduct religious services on stated and special occasions and administer the ordinances.

334 335 336

5. He shall have special charge of the pulpit ministry of the Church, arrange for pulpit supply when he is absent and arrange for workers to assist in revival meetings and other special meetings.

337338

6. He shall moderate all regular and special business meetings except on matters involving the salary or tenure of the Pastor in which the Chairperson or Vice-Chairperson of the Deacons shall preside.

339 340 341

7. He shall be a voting member, but not a chairperson, of all organizations, departments, and committees.

8. He shall call special meetings of the Deacons or any committee by notifying the chairperson thereof.

- C. Salary of the Pastor: The initial salary and benefits of a new Pastor will be determined by the Pastor Search Committee and Finance Committee within the salary guidelines recommended by the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina. Subsequent salary and benefit packages for the Pastor will be determined by the Finance Committee in the annual budget.
- D. Absence of the Pastor: The Church shall provide a supply Pastor for up to two revivals per year. These revivals will not be held in consecutive weeks. Additional revivals by the Pastor in other Churches shall require approval of the Deacons and the Pastor shall be responsible for providing for the supply Pastor during the additional absences. If the Pastor is away from the pulpit on Church business, the Church shall pay for the supply Pastor in the Pastor's absence.
- E. Resignation of the Pastor: In case the Pastor wishes to resign, he is to give the Church thirty days notice, in writing, to be presented at a Sunday service. The Pastor's compensation and service to the Church are to continue for the said thirty days or as otherwise mutually agreed. In case the Church requests the Pastor's resignation by majority Church vote, he is to be given notice that his compensation and benefits cease in thirty days. The Church has the final say as to whether he is allowed in the pulpit during his thirty day notice.

Section 3: Deacons

- A. Call of the Deacons: There shall be at least three (3) Deacons for the first one hundred (100) members of the Church and as many beyond that number for additional members as deemed necessary to carry on the business of the Church. They shall be elected from among the members who have proven themselves to be Deacon material and have scriptural qualifications for Deacons as given in 1 Timothy 3:8-13 and Acts 6:1-6. Deacons shall at all times consider themselves servants of the Church and seek to carry out the will of the Church in the spirit of a servant of Jesus Christ and the Church. Deacons are to be in sympathy and complete support of all Church programs. No member shall be eligible as a Deacon of this Church until they have been a member of this Church for a period of one year. New converts shall not be eligible to serve as a Deacon for a period of two years.
- B. Organization of the Deacons: The Deacons shall elect a Chairperson, Vice-Chairperson, and such other officers as needed. The Deacons are to have regularly scheduled meetings. Special Deacons' meetings may be called by the Chairperson of the Deacons or the Pastor as deemed necessary. The meetings are to be moderated by the Chairperson or vice-Chairperson of the Deacons. In the absence of both, the remaining Deacons shall elect a moderator they deem wise and acceptable. The Chairperson of the Deacons for the preceding year shall preside over the first meeting of the new Diaconate for the purpose of electing a new chairperson. Deacons shall keep the will of the Church and consider the 396 Church as the authority to accept or reject any proposals the Pastor and 397 Deacons may make. All authority is centered in the Church. 398 C. Duties of the Deacons: Deacons shall at all times consider themselves 399 400 as servants of the Church. With the Pastor, and as the Holy Spirit may 401 direct, they shall serve the Church in its Pastoral ministries as follows: 402 1. Proclaim the Gospel to believers and unbelievers. 403 2. Care for Church members and other persons in the community. 404 3. Assist the Pastor in the visitation of delinquent members, the sick and 405 first time visitors. 406 4. Lead the Church to engage in a fellowship of worship, witness, 407 education and ministry. 408 5. Lead the Church in performing its tasks with the Pastor as the Holy 409 Spirit may direct. 410 6. Assist the Pastor in the observance of the ordinances. 411 7. Possess and display moral and spiritual leadership by supporting 412 every phase of the Church program. 8. Provide conflict resolution services for Church and Church staff. 413 9. Determine and maintain a list of resident and non-resident members 414 415 including addresses and phone numbers. 416 10. Determine and maintain a list of active and inactive members 417 including addresses and phone numbers. 418 11. Communicate changes in status of members (i.e. active/inactive, 419 resident/non-resident) to the Church Clerk. 420 12. Secure a supply Pastor in the event that the Pastor becomes 421 incapacitated. 422 13. Perform the corporate duties of the Board of Directors. 423 14. Organize opening and closing of church facilities for services and 424 special events. 425 426 D. Nomination of the Deacons: On the first Sunday in July after the 427 morning worship service, blank slips of paper will be passed out with 428 spaces for members to write in names of candidates for Deacons. The 429 number of candidate nominations allowed will be equal to the number of 430 Deacon positions needed. Ballots with more nominations than equal to 431 the number of positions needed will be invalid, but those with less than the number needed will be considered valid. The ballots shall be 432 counted by the active Deacons present at the time of the nominations. 433 The Secretary of the Deacons will record the results. Individuals 434 435 receiving the highest number of nominations shall be interviewed by the 436 Pastor and active Deacons to determine if they are eligible and willing to 437 serve faithfully. 438 439 E. Election of Deacons: A final ballot will be prepared listing those candidates found qualified and receiving the highest number of 440 nominations. The number of candidates on the ballot shall be 441 442 determined by placing two more names than needed (i.e. If two (2) positions are needed then four (4) names will appear on the ballot). If for 443 444 any reason there are not sufficient names to fill the ballot properly, then the ballot will contain only those found qualified. The last Sunday in July immediately following the morning worship service, voting will be done by secret ballot. Members are allowed to vote for the number of positions available. No write-in votes will be allowed. The candidates with the highest votes, sufficient to fill the positions needed, will be declared elected. Ballots with more votes than equal to the number of positions needed will be invalid, but those with less than the number needed will be considered valid. The ballots shall be counted by the active Deacons present at the time of the vote. The Secretary of the Deacons will record the results. The elected candidates will be announced at the following worship service.

F. Rotation of the Deacons: The Diaconate shall consist of the number of persons deemed necessary by the Deacons and approved by the Church. They shall serve a three (3) year term as a Deacon with a one (1) year interval between the conclusion of one term and the beginning of another. In the event a Deacon dies, resigns, or is otherwise removed from the active Deacons, they shall be replaced in the following manner: from the vote of the previous election, the person receiving the next highest number of votes to the last person elected will be considered elected to fill the unexpired term. If this person serves one year or less, then they are eligible for immediate re-election.

Section 4: Board of Directors:

A. Composition and Capacity: The currently serving members of the Deacons shall, meeting and acting together, constitute the Board of Directors of this Church. The Board of Directors shall change by and in the same procedure as for the terms of members of the Deacons so that the Board of Directors shall perpetually be the same as the Deacons. In their capacity as directors, they shall have the duties and responsibilities attendant to directors, subject however to the limitations set forth in the Charter and Bylaws. Consistent with our spiritual principles, Baptist polity and long-term practice, the congregation as a whole retains the authority to govern the affairs, spiritual and temporal, of the Church.

 B. Corporate Officers: The Chairperson of the Deacons shall, whenever required by law or practice, serve as the President of the corporation, having however only such express powers as are granted by the congregation, and having no power to bind the corporation in any matter or act for it without such authorization. In a similar manner and subject to the same limitations, the Vice-Chairperson of the Deacons shall be authorized to act as the Vice-President.

C. Duties of the Board of Directors:

 1. Be familiar with the efforts being put forth for the progress of the Church.

 2. Familiarize themselves with the Articles of Incorporation and provide that all Church property and entities are protected through incorporation.

3. Become familiar with laws concerning incorporation.

C. Guidelines: The committee shall:

1073 1074 1. Have sole authority in the choice of a candidate to be presented to the Church.

1075 1076 2. Secure an interim Pastor to fill the pulpit during the search period. a. The Pastor Search Committee will seek qualified interim Pastors through the New River Baptist Association. b. The Pastor Search Committee will review the spiritual condition of the Church with the interim Pastor every three months. The committee will then decide the continuance of the relationship between the interim Pastor and the Church.

1077 1078 1079

1082 1083 c. If an interim Pastor decides to be considered as a prospective candidate, he shall resign his interim duties and the Pastor Search Committee shall secure another interim Pastor.

1084 1085 1086

3. Work with only one candidate at a time and ensure that the candidate is working only with our committee.

1087 1088 4. Investigate prospective candidates using available resources (i.e. background checks, etc)

1089 5. Work with the Finance Committee in determining salary and benefit 1090 packages for a prospective candidate. 1091 6. Utilize the latest resources of the New River Baptist Association and 1092 the North Carolina Baptist Convention in defining operational 1093 procedures of the committee. 1094 ARTICLE XIII. - Section 2: Ordination: In the event this Church has been requested to ordain a member who has been called as a Pastor of a Southern Baptist Church or who is entering some other ministry field which requires ordination, the following procedure will be followed:
 - A. The candidate should advise the Pastor of his request. The Pastor will arrange an interview with the Deacons and the candidate for ordination. Upon completion of a satisfactory interview, the Chairperson of the Deacons will contact the local Baptist Associational Ordination Committee.
 - B. The local Baptist Association Ordination Committee, if there is one, will examine the candidate concerning his fitness for the ministry. In the event it is not possible to obtain the approval of the local Baptist Association Ordination Committee and the Church still feels the candidate is worthy and qualified, the Church shall invite ordained ministers from neighboring Churches to examine the candidate and report to the Church. All members of the Ordination Committee shall be ministers who are qualified and versed in Baptist Doctrines and the Scriptures.
 - C. The Church must express its approval by a secret ballot vote of threefourths of its members present at the time of the vote.

1139	ARTICLE XIV. ADOPTION AND AMENDMENTS
1141	Section 1: These Bylaws shall be considered adopted and in immediate effect if
1142	and when two-thirds of the members voting at the business meeting at which
1143	time the vote is taken shall approve the same. The vote shall be taken not less
1144	than thirty (30) days after the distribution of any Bylaws to the Church.
1145
1146	Section 2: These Bylaws may be amended, altered, or repealed by two-thirds
1147	vote of the Church members voting at any business meeting of the Church;
1148	provided, however, that notice and proposal of such amendment, alteration, or
1149	repeal must be given in writing at least thirty (30) days in advance and such
1150	notice is in the hands of the Church Clerk during the period of waiting.
1151
1152	Section 3: A copy of these Bylaws shall at all times be kept by the Church Clerk
1153	among his/her other records and another copy shall be kept in the office of the
1154	Church. All amendments to or revisions thereof shall, after passage of the
1155	Church, be attached to this copy with a date given of each revision, alteration, or
1156	amendment.
1157
1158	Section 4: A copy of these Bylaws shall be given to each Church family and to
1159	each addition to the Church membership.
1160
1162	The Bylaws were adopted by the Church:
